

1995 publications by, or with the assistance of, The Wildfowl & Wetlands Trust staff and facilities

Publications are listed only if they were submitted by WWT/Wetlands Advisory Service staff, consultants or students during their period of employment by WWT (though they may be published subsequently). Reports include those by students working at universities on WWT data and jointly supervised by research staff. Members of the Department made substantial contributions to Wildfowl 46. These have been incorporated, as appropriate.
